

CST Students win Best Student Paper award at the CATE-2019 (Comfort at the Extremes 2019) Conference, Heriot Watt University, Dubai

Khadeeja Henna and Aysha S. currently pursuing PhD (with supervisor Prof. Monto Mani) at the Centre for Sustainable Technologies (CST) were awarded the Best Student Paper for their paper Responsiveness and resilience of existing dwellings in warm-humid climate zone to changing climate at the CATE-2019 conference held at Heriot Watt University, Dubai from 10~11 April 2019.

<https://comfortattheextremes.com/>

